

CHART 1

Poor	Middle-Class	Wealthy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Basic wooden house (limited electricity) • Bike • Cell phone • Low paid or no job • Basic wooden fishing boat to collect food • Some medical services/ no health insurance • Primary education/some secondary education • Shared toilets within the community • Shared water wells Note: you have no insurance, no remittances, no social security or government funded benefits.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong house • Second hand car • Reasonably paid job • TV • Computer • Can afford most medical expenses • Have some insurance • Remittances (money) received from family overseas • Access to primary, secondary and tertiary education • Access to clean water, private toilets and food 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Strong concrete house • Modern/new car • Well-paid job / business owner • TV, computer, radio, ipad • Cell phone • Nice clothes • Overseas holidays • Maid • Nanny • Can meet all medical expenses • Extensive home, contents and health insurance • Private education including primary, secondary and tertiary. • Access to clean water, private toilets and food

CHART 2

Poor	Middle Class	Wealthy
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • House destroyed P1000 • Cost of tarpaulin for temporary shelter P50 • Boat destroyed P200 • Community sanitation system damaged. Need to purchase anti-septic liquid and buckets. P80 • Community water supply damaged. Need to purchase safe drinking water for a week. P200 • Medical fees from family members physically injured from debris during the typhoon (no health insurance) P800 • Funeral costs P850 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Damage to the exterior of the house P2500 (You pay excess of P500) • Damage to garden P300 (You pay excess of P100) • Loss of wages P500 • Childcare costs: P1000 • Cost of contacting relatives: P20 • Contaminated water supply means you need to purchase bottled water for several days: P200 • You have some food supplies in your cupboards. You buy some food. P100 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Minor damage to the exterior of the house P1000 (covered by insurance) • Damage to garden P200 (covered by insurance) • Phone calls to overseas relatives who are concerned P20 • Increased childcare P1000 • Need to replace contaminated water supply with bottled water for several days. P200 • Power is down but you can run your own generator for 2 weeks. P250 • You have food supplies for two weeks in your cupboards.